

Introductory Faulted Map Activity

- 1) Draw strike lines for both the fault (the zigzag thick lines running from the top centre to bottom centre of the image as well as one of the rock layers.
- 2) Using the rock layer strike lines on either side of the fault, work out which side of the fault has moved up and which side has moved down.
- 3) Sketch a rough cross section from points X to Y.

